“Powersoft’s reputation worldwide is built on quality and reliability. It is, without question, the amplifier brand that is leading the market with advanced technology and innovation for installed sound,” says Hope. “Powersoft’s amplifiers, in combination with the other brands we represent such as Tannoy and Symetrix, enhance our ability to offer complete integrated solutions to our customers.”

AVL Media Group will continue to build Powersoft’s established brand recognition by actively engaging in the market with multi-faceted awareness campaigns, webinars and in person visits to key stakeholders. Welcoming the new Canadian distributor, Sara Schiffler, Powersoft’s business development manager, says: “We are pleased to extend a warm welcome to AVL Media Group, whose dedication and passion aligns with Powersoft’s values, as our newest distributor. This collaboration reinforces our commitment to fostering growth in Canada and we look forward to a journey of mutual success.”
