

Bogren Digital Krimh Drums Free

Bogren Digital today releases Krimh Drums Free, an entirely free software instrument for creating modern and realistic drum tracks for rock and metal productions in any DAW. Krimh Drums Free is a Kontakt Player instrument that was sound designed by Jens Bogren — a leading producer and engineer of metal bands such as Arch Enemy, Opeth, and Kreator — together with drummer Krimh, who has lent his outstanding skills to bands such as Behemoth, Decapitated, Dååth, and Septicflesh. Krimh Drums Free can be downloaded from Bogren Digital's website now.

Now, anyone can get free album-ready drums tailored for rock and metal productions. Krimh Drums Free is a software instrument that delivers fresh and modern-sounding metal drums in any DAW. It was sound-designed to hard-hitting perfection by renowned metal producer Jens Bogren (Arch Enemy, Opeth, Kreator, and many others) in close collaboration with outstanding drummer Kerim “Krimh” Lechner (Behemoth, Decapitated, Dååth, and Septicflesh).
