

NTi Audio CEO Philipp Schwizer retires

NTi Audio has announced the retirement of its long-serving CEO, Philipp Schwizer, effective April 30, 2023. After a successful tenure of over two decades, Schwizer has decided to step down from his role and enjoy a well-deserved retirement.

Philipp Schwizer founded NTi Audio in 2000. During his tenure as CEO, he led NTi Audio to achieve significant growth and success, establishing the company as a global leader in the design, production, and distribution of advanced audio and acoustics measurement solutions. His innovative leadership, strategic vision, and unwavering commitment to quality have been instrumental in the company's success, earning NTi Audio a reputation for excellence in the industry.

In a statement, Schwizer expressed his gratitude for the opportunity to lead NTi Audio and work with its talented team, stating: "It has been an honor and privilege to serve as the CEO of NTi Audio for over two decades. I am proud of what we have accomplished together and our reputation in the industry. I am confident that the company is well-positioned for continued success under new leadership."
